CONEY ISLAND, TREASURE ISLAND, FL

LOCATION LOCATION LOCATION! This is your opportunity to own this beach life home in a rarely available neighborhood that is only 1 block wide so you can enjoy all the water activities from any direction out your front door. It is only a few houses West to the lighted crosswalk on Gulf Blvd. taking you to the Boardwalk and the beautiful Treasure Island Beach. A few doors to the East and you are fishing the Intercoastal (known to many fisherman as "The Kitchen"). Each avenue offers access to the intercoastal with fishing or a boat ramp only a few blocks up. This floorplan features 2 ensuite baths, (one for each bedroom), a galley kitchen, and access to the backyard from the primary bedroom with an outside (surfboard) shower. The backyard is fully fenced with a pergola on the patio for sitting and sipping in the shade and a large deck to the side (closer to the kitchen) to place your grill. Park a few cars here with the driveway and rocked, xeroscaped front yard. The neighborhood also offers guest (paid) parking opportunities for hosting larger groups of friends and family. Walk or bike to numerous shopping and dining favorites in Treasure Island and Johns Pass. Take the Beachfront Boardwalk to enjoy roller blading, the best views to walk off dinner or get your exercise in without sand in your shoes but with the water in your view. This home did sustain flooding from Hurricane Helene and much has been removed but the granite countertop was left for savings to the buyer. Buyers to perform due diligence on renovations or intended use.

Home is being sold AS-IS.
